

House Resolution No. 1289

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably help students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Allison Kuhn of Lexington, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a first-grade teacher in the Lexington R-V School District; and

Whereas, on March 28, 2008, Allison Kuhn will enhance her already impressive record of achievement when she is honored as the Bright Apple Award winning Teacher of the Year for Lexington schools at a Teacher Appreciation Night sponsored by the Lexington Lions Club; and

Whereas, the Communication Arts curriculum leader for Leslie Bell Elementary School, Allison Kuhn previously served as a teacher's assistant in the Hazelwood School District and is a graduate of Hazelwood Central High School and a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Missouri-Saint Louis; and

Whereas, Allison Kuhn enjoys reading and participating in the Missouri National Education Association; and

Whereas, Allison Kuhn is the beloved daughter of Alan and JoAnn Kuhn and the loving sister of Joseph Kuhn; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri educators as Allison Kuhn:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Allison Kuhn as the Bright Apple Award winning Teacher of the Year for Lexington public schools and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Allison Kuhn of Lexington, Missouri.
